PREFACE.

DEAR CLASSMATES:—It is without the least feeling of regret that I have at last finished the task of compiling the First Directory for the "Famous" Class of '99. I little dreamed of the amount of labor necessary for the accomplishment of the work. But, as all of our number seem to have more time than anything else, I will not complain of not having plenty of time myself. I can truly say that it has been a source of gratification to me to hear from so many who seem to be quite successful in practice, and, by the way, I believe the "book-worms" have succeeded better than the "ram-scats." [For the terms "book-worms" and "ram-scats," I am indebted to Senator Hogg.]

I do regret, however, that so many have failed to respond to my request for information; however, I have succeeded in getting the names and addresses of nearly every member of our class, and quite a number have added to the material for the Directory by sending such information as I am sure we will all enjoy reading. Some of the statements seem "highly colored," but from my humble station I may be prejudiced.

In regard to the financial part of the undertaking, I can only say that any one who has a desire to take stock in this concern can buy my share at greatly reduced prices, owing to the stringency of the New York money market. Taking us as a whole, I can furnish evidence from the word of many letters, and not from the amount of money remitted that we are the most successful class on earth—not a single failure in the whole "lot." Well, fellows, we all expected a hard time of it for the first year or two, and no doubt our fondest dreams have been realized.

I will only say that I have spent all the money sent me in getting out this Directory and a few dollars I borrowed from confiding friends, and over a week's time in getting material ready for publication, and answering letters, and if it is not what you have expected, do not criticise the compiler.

I expect to issue the Directory each year, so long as I get the same support of the class that I received this year, and you may look for circulars on or before Oct. 15, 1900.

I shall be glad to hear from any of you, and hope by another year that some of the "luke-warms" will become interested in common with us.

I want to thank all, who by kindly words have encouraged me in my work, and wishing you all the success you merit, I am, fraternally yours,

FRANK W. BROWN.

The following is an account of receipts and expenditures of the Class Tax Committtee of the Law Class of '99.

				Total Expenditures	$348.50

					$413.00

It is interesting to note that of 210 members of the class who were counted on to pay the tax, 145 paid the full amount, while 33 did not pay. If the tax had been $2.00, as urged by some, and the 145 who paid $2.50 had paid but $2.00, while the rest paid the same as above, the class would have been $8.00 in debt. The $64.50 in the treasury will be expended, as voted by the class, by a committee consisting of Dean Hutchins, Prof. Mechem and the Chairman of the Tax Committee for some object of advantage to the Law School. This object has not yet been decided on, because of the illness of Prof. Mechem for some weeks. Report will be made later through The Alumnus.

E. C. Goddard.

Chairman Tax Committee.

Sumpter, Ore.

My Dear Brown:—After canvassing Eastern Oregon and the Sound Country, I have come up here to Sumpter. We are right in the center of one of the richest and most extensive mining districts in the world, and are having now and next year such a boom as has not been equalled on this country in years. Sumpter has more than doubled in size this year, and the men who expect to do this booming have not really squared themselves for it yet. Keep your eye on Sumpter. I have been here a month, and am doing very well; have made more than expenses, and am getting acquainted. Wishing you all success in your practice, and in the Directory, I am, yours very sincerely,

Charles S. Roblin, Sumpter, Oregon.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 27, 1899.

Have won seven cases in the justice court, and have had considerable collecting. Yours,

Fred Russ.

Tuscola, Ills., Oct., 11, 1899.

Dear Sir:—It was with pleasure that I received your letter regarding the Class Directory, and I enclose twenty-five cents in stamps to pay for one copy. You have my best wishes for the success of the first issue. I am as ever, your classmate,

J. M. Fuller.

New Britton, Ind.

Dear Classmates:—I have decided on a location, and am still on a vacation.

Oren H. Fisher.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 8, 1899.

Dear Mr. Brown:—I enclose statement of class treasury to date. I am still instructor in math. U. of M. Yours truly,

E. C. Goddard.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 13, 1899.

My Dear Brown:—Located permanently at Spokane. I do not think that an attorney's success depends upon the number of cases that he wins or loses, or the amount of money that he makes, or again, upon his early marriage. I feel that I am succeeding for three reasons: I like the practice of the law tremendously, I am happy, and I am not married. Greetings to all '99 Laws. Trusting that you are succeeding in the practice, and hoping that you will have a very happy year, I am your friend,

W. S. Gilbers.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 1, 1899.

Friend Brown:—I am in Barbour & Rexford's office, and have been here all summer. I have had plenty of work so far, and like it here very much. Hoping this finds you prospering, I am, very truly yours,

W. B. Haight, 30 Buhl Block, Detroit, Mich.

Petoskey, Mich., Oct. 15, 1899.

Dear Sir:—Glad to hear of steps being taken toward the publication of a Class Directory. I desire to say through the Directory that I am a member of Halstead & Halstead, Petoskey, Mich. Yours very truly,

B. H. Halstead.

Huntington, Ind., Nov. 10, 1899.

We have lost two cases and won nine. All the above accomplished and still able to make a jury hear. We opened our office July 1, 1899.
F. H. Bowers.

Grafton, Ill. Dec. 3, 1899.

After leaving college I spent several months on vacation. I will not engage in legal work until Spring. Will then be in office in St. Louis.
Yours sincerely,
G. C. Brainerd.

Henry C. Hill, Alexander K. Gage and Rufus P. Ranney, announce that they have opened offices for the general practice of law under the firm name of Hill, Gage and Ranney, Suite, 8 Whitney Opera House Building. December 18, 1899.

Arcadia, Wis., Nov. 6, 1899.

I have only been admitted to practice about a month. I have a couple of justice cases, and one partnership case on hand which will probably come to trial. I am just existing for the present.
Yours fraternally,
John A. Cashel.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18, 1899.

I have not decided on a location, but at present I am with my brother in this city.
Your friend,
H. C. Churchman.

Fresno, Cal., Oct. 14, 1899.

Dear Brown:—Am located at present with my father here in Fresno, Cal., and am at least, making an attempt at practicing law. Have been in several cases, losing some and winning others. My first case I won in the justice court, but it has been appealed, and is still pending in our Superior Court. No official positions, marriages, births, and am still alive. I remain fraternally,
Your Classmate, P. C. Chruch.

Very truly yours,
Clifford W. Crandall.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 12, 1899.

You will notice by my card which I enclose, that I am now located in Butte, Mont., or will be in a few days. Have my office rented and have been getting necessary furniture, etc. Expect to be ready for Clients by Monday. Since my graduation I have spent most of my time here temporarily located with a practising attorney of Anaconda.

I can only say that I am still on earth and doing my best to float on top instead of on the bottom of the legal pond. So far I have succeeded in coming to the surface often enough to keep on hand a sufficient supply of oxygen to keep going. Hoping that you are meeting with a goodly share of success, I am

Yours sincerely,

Harold H. Emmons, 61 Moffat Bldg.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 20, 1899.

Dear Classmates:—If numbers signify anything, the '99 Law Class is certainly well represented in Spokane. There are six of us here at present—Gilbert, Adams, Soule, Barnhart, Strong and myself. Seven counting Strong's partner. But if my memory serves me correctly, Prof. Kirchmer instructed us that when two persons got married their legal eoinstanti merged into one and that one was the man—so we are only six. I dislike very much to write about myself, so I'll tell "all I know" that has been brought to my personal knowledge, about the other boys who are here. Gilbert is getting along nicely. He was appointed by the court to defend a thief. Well the thief was sent to prison simply because he neglected to steal enough to employ a first-class attorney. Barnhart's cases are like jug-handles—one-sided affairs. It is due to his being a deputy prosecutor, whose duty it is to defend undefended divorce cases. In the trial of one case, Barnhart defined marriage as "A committee of two, with discretionary power to increase their number"—and the court so held. Adams has done the most business—he knows a'l the girls in town. Soule has his office in the back end of a grocery store. He learned among other things while at Ann Arbor that a business in the rear end of a grocery-store was well patronized.—Johnny Goetz. His law practice is very limited. The principle case in which he was employed was collecting a board bill—the Bill of Particulars disclosed an indebtedness for one dinner to the amount of fifteen cents. The defendant was a married man, with a wife and seventeen children. Soule had in his search offer something bearing on the case, learned from "Rood on Garnishment," that where a man had sixteen children his wages were exempt from garnishment. So he took this book under his arm and headed for Justice Court where he contended that "when a man had seventeen children his wages are stripped of all legal verbiage"—subject to garnishment for the payment of board bil's. To a fellow class-mate it was evidently one of his old time bluffs that he used to put up in the Constitutional Law Class. Adams was the defendant's counsel and he, like Prof. Mechem, "called his bluff." This made Soule very angry, so he packed up his silk hat and cane and left the room disgusted. Knowing that such a report of these fellows will be expected by each of you, I submit it.—Dye.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 2, 1899.

I am located in this city and have won seven cases. Was married Oct. 26, 1899.

Morgan Strong.

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 31, 1899.

I am with T E Barkworth of this city. Yours, R. A. Smith.

Chicago, Ills., Oct. 24, 1899.

Dear Sir and Classmate:—I spent two or three days of last week in Ann Arbor and was informed by a member of the law faculty that the department had secured a make-shift only for the class of '99. Twenty nine Michigan men took the examination this fall for the Illinois Bar. Every one of them, without exceptions, I believe were passed. One cannot walk a block in Chicago without meeting at least one Michigan man, and they without fail carry around a crowing face, so I suppose we are all prosperous. In answer to your printed questions, I should say that I am with Messrs. Cutling, Castle and Williams, 812-3 Chamber of Commerce Building. Yours truly, Roland D. Whitman.

Waterville, Minn., Oct. 11, 1899.

Dear Friend:—Your letter received. I will remain here in business with my father for some time, as I have not yet decided on a permanent location. Had a pleasure trip on the Lakes as far as Duluth in company with Barnhardt, of four days on our way home. I hope you will receive a full report. Wishing you as well as each member of our class, success, I remain, Sincerely yours, Thomas L. Everett.

Hicksville, Ohio, Dec. 1, 1899.

I am practicing law here. I am associated with William L. McConnell. Yours, M. E. Wilson.

Angola, Ind., Nov. 11, 1899.

I am located in Angola and married. Yours, Alphonso C. Wood.

Fon Du Lac, Wis., Oct. 10, 1899.

Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 7th., at hand, and I hasten to answer as I am very much interested in the getting out of a class directory. I think it an excellent means of keeping track of the boys of '99, and hope that the directory may be continued in future years, and assure you of my hearty support thereto. As you know I dropped out of the class at the end of the year '98-9 and took the state bar exam. the following August. We found it rather stiff, 20 of us out of 50 passing. I am located here in my old home town and am going it alone at the present, doing a general law and collection business and represent several collection agencies. Have had several good cases, in this and other counties and am at present interested, as attorney for the minor heirs, in a case against the Ry. Co., for unlawful killing of a parent, but like the proverbial lawyer, lost my first case. Am not married yet. This may sound as though I was enjoying a very lucrative practice, but the lucre, for some reason has failed to take on the golden color, or assume the pile of plenty, Very truly yours, Elric P. Worthing.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Dec. 6, 1899.

I am practicing law at Lawrenceburg, Ind., ever since I came home from Ann Arbor, Mich. I have won two large cases, one of $8,000 and another of $9,000 and have another case to try in January term of about $8,000. I have been appointed by the state to try these cases and I have won nearly every case which I have tried. I have had about ten cases since I have been home. About three weeks ago I was appointed attorney and agent for the American Bonding and Trust Co., of Baltimore Md. Yours respectfully, Theo. J. Wulbur,

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 11, 1899.

I am not practising, but expect to locate somewhere in Ind. Ter. I am alive but not married. I found my literary education deficient, so am here doing Special work. De Daunenbergh.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 17, 1899.

I was transferred to '00 Class. Carrying a years work in the Literary Department. Will practice in Iowa. Fulton Thompson.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 24, 1899.

I was very successful in getting into Mr. Galen's office shortly after arriving in Helena. He is a member of the '97 Law Class and has already built up a paying practice. Although not a partner in the business I am deriving the same advantages as if I was. Davidson has located in Butte City. McCormack, I understand is over there, but has not located. Dooling came out a few weeks ago and located in Butte with an other fellow, but they did not stay with it long. Dooling picked up and went back to Michigan. Matthews, of Helena, went into partnership here with Schacht of Pennsylvania, (a member of the '00 Law Class, who came out this last spring and took the bar examination) and they are getting established slowly. Tried their first case in the District Court yesterday and succeeded in hanging the jury. When the annual is out I want to secure one without fail, as I am interested to know what has become of some of the boys. I hear from Brainerd now and then and it seems that he is on their farm at present. How are Landis and Bowers getting along?

Very respectfully yours,

W. D. Lipton.

Batavia, Cal., Oct. 14, 1899.

I expect to locate in San Francisco. Kindest regards and best wishes for Directory. Yours, Leo C. Tuck.

The first estate is appraised at $15,000, and the second at $1,300. Claims are now being filed on both. Hearings set for Jan. and Feb. 1900. Have been fairly successful thus far. Hoping the Directory may be complete and with best wishes to yourself, I remain, As ever your Friend and Classmate, Roy M. Watkins, New Houseman Block.

Dear Brown:—I have a nice office job here and am going to stay till spring, when I am going to Oklahoma and start. I see by yesterdays paper that several of our boys took the Illinois examinations and passed. I will not take the examinations in this state as I am not going to stay here. Ever your friend, G. C. Wilson.

I am always late but able to make my salt, Good luck to you.

F. G. Drenning.

Nelson, Neb., Oct. 13, 1899.

Dear Classmate:—I herewith enclose the information you desire for our class directory. I say nothing of cases lost or won, as I am in partnership with an attorney who has been practicing here for eighteen years, and cases lost or won is no indication of my merit. I am getting along first-class and feel that my time at Ann Arbor was well spent, and have no doubt that you are enjoying the same satisfaction. I will be glad to receive the directory and learn where the boys all are. I am a member of the firm of Searle and Dysart. Wishing you success in this, and all other undertakings,

Yours respectfully,

T. B. Dysart.

Bloomsburg, Pa., Oct. 10, 1899.

Dear friend:—I have been wondering what had become of your project for a class-directory and am pleased to learn that you are at work on it. I herewith enclose my report which is not very lengthy as I have just been admitted. I have opened an office here but as yet have not been rushed with court work. So far my work has been confined to justice court practice and some divorce proceedings. Am also at work on quite an important damage suit. Extending my best wishes for success in your practice, I beg to remain,

Respectfully yours,

H. Mont Smith.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 8, 1899.

I sincerely hope this directory will be a success, and I am sure we all have you to thank for your work in the matter. You neglected to send a blank to W. S. Gilbert a '99, and for fear he should not be mentioned, I send you the following information: W. S. Gilbert in business in The Rookery, Spokane, Wash. He has the official position of Notary Public. He has been married twice, has twins and is almost dead himself. Otherwise his health is good. I am in partnership with Chas. W. Hoyt.

Yours truly,

Ellis G. Soule.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 28, 1899.

I am practicing in this city and have been fairly successful since I opened my office.

Very truly yours,

My Dear Brown:—Should have answered your letter long ago, but have been too busy. I've appeared in several "justice shop" cases and won them all. I just succeeded in getting a verdict of "not guilty" for a client of mine who stole a trunk of clothing. This was my first by case. I also have a big rape case which will be set for trial soon, if the constitutional objection which I raised to the indictment is overruled. I had only been in my office two days, when the affairs of a large retail business house were placed in my hands as liquidator. Assets, about $30,000. This, together with other little business which I get from day to day, combined with the race I am making against our local ring for prosecuting attorneyship for our county keep one hustling. Let me hear from you. Yours, in haste,

John Arbenj, Jr.

Syracuse Neb., Oct. 23, 1899.

I leave in about two weeks for Omaha, where I have made arrangements to go into a law office with Hon. J. H. Van Dusen. However, send the Directory addressed to Syracuse, Neb. Wishing you all kinds of success, I remain,

Yours very truly,

L. H. Arends.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 12, 1899.

Dear Brown:—I am working in a law office. Hoping you all kinds of success with the Directory, as the fellows ought to keep track of each other.

I am in the firm of Barr Bros. I have won three cases and lost one. I am single as yet. Your classmate,

J. M. Barr.

Sunnam, Ind., Nov. 29, 1899.

I have been doing right well here at home, this summer. I have not opened an office yet, but have made $300 this summer. I got $100 attorneys fee out of one case. I was for defendant. But I made the most out of collections. I have had good luck in making collections. I am going into partnership with Elric P. Worthington, of Fon Du Lac, Wis. We expect to get started by Jan. 1, 1900. Yours,

G. E. Bielby.

My Dear Friend and Classmate:—I have located in St. Louis, and have opened an office in the Union Trust Building, Rooms 615-17. If you should happen to be in this "neck of the woods" at any time in the future, I should be glad to have you call, and I shall take great pleasure in showing you the city. With best wishes for your success, I beg to remain, yours very truly,

George D. Harris.

Friend Brown:—My office is in the building of the Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., the far-famed defendant in the notable income tax case of 1895, about which our dear Machem was so thoroughly informed.

Fraternally yours, M. M. Levy.

I am located in Alpha, Ills. I lost one case and won three. No marriages, births or deaths. Almon H. Linn.

I have not as yet been admitted in Pennsylvania, but expect to take the "exam." in December. Neither am I married: but, as to births—well, better not say anything about that. Wishing you success with the Directory, and also in your business, I am yours truly, Lloyd.

Hutchinson, Kans., Oct. 12, 1899.

Dear Sir and Classmate:—Answering yours of Oct. 7. The name and location you will get from enclosed card. After two months practice, I have won two cases—compromised one and lost one. I have also been successful in making several collections. I am running a side line of farm and city loans. I have desk room with the richest attorney in the city, and the office, comprising five rooms, is the finest and best equipped in the city. Through the instrumentality of the man I am with, I am now in charge of a city rental business (as a side line), with the disposition of about 150 store rooms and dwellings. Forever a 99 Law. A. C. Malloy.

Huntington, Ind., Oct. 16, 1899.

Won nine cases, lost two. I am secretary of Businessmen's Executive Committee. Firm name—Bowers & Landis, Bippus Block, Huntington, Ind. Opened office July 1, 1899. Cary D. Landis.

Lapeer, Mich., Jan. 6, 1900.

My Dear Brown:—Your circular of Oct. 7, again comes to light on my desk and shall now have the attention it should have had long ago. I would like to know how all the fellows of '99 are making it. As for myself, I am satisfied with what I have so far been able to do in Lapeer, my home town. Have chiefly kept myself busy with collection work, etc., with occasionally a case in Justice Court. Now have a case pending in Chancery which makes me wish sometimes I had taken fewer naps when Tommy was talking about Subrogation. I learn from Mulholland that he is right in line in Toledo, having formed a partnership with Judge Austin and is located at 1040 The Spitzer. Fred Ballard is member of firm of Gates & Ballard of Sanilac Centre, Mich., and I am told he is doing well. With best wishes for your own success, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Louis C. Cramton.

Omaha, Neb., Jan., 17, 1900.

My Dear Brown:—I have delayed making inquiries in regard to the class book for the reason that I had not permanently located. Have been in Chicago during the past six months with Church, McMurdy & Sherman, and have just returned home to go into partnership with Mr. Crawford, at the above address. Enclosed please find 30c. in stamps to cover the expense of class book and postage. If there are any further charges please notify me and I will remit at once. I trust you have found the law a profitable as well as a noble calling and that the New Year will be a successfull one.

Sincerely yours,

Henry T. Clark.

Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 7, 1900.

My Dear Brown:—Your letter was received by me about a month ago and should have answered it some time before but we have been rushed so in settling here was coming here till about Dec. the first. Your letter I found waiting me at home when I returned from the west. Kellogg and I did not get back till in Nov. We did quite well in a financial way so that we have been enabled to start fairly well in the way of a library office furnishings etc. We have started in too, in a very prosperous time in this city. The town has taken on a wonderful boom and through certain pulls we have got a good start. Kellogg goes out to his home town in the other corner of the county every Wednesday where he has an office and where there are no lawyers and we have picked up considerable business from that end of the county. Then we are in with a prominent Real Estate man here renting half his offices and in turn we do all his conveyances and get a rake off of 25% on all his commissions for helping him a little in other ways. We have had two cases in Justice Court and three more started for this week. We are mixed up in some promoting schemes for getting new industries here and so by hook and crook are becoming quite rapidly acquainted. We have negotiated the sale of some very good patents and got a good rake off. I have a dozen or so houses and lots belonging to outside parties that I am looking after I loan considerable money and so all in all we have considerable more than made expenses, we are having considerable besides. We are in our office every evening till 10 P. M. and get considerable business that way.

Yours truly,

Kellogg & Chapman.

Peoria, Ills., Oct. 30, 1899.

Dear Sir:—Since corresponding with you the last time, I have decided to locate in Peoria, Ills. I hope this is not too late to go in the class record. With best wishes for your success, I am,

Respectfully,

Herman W. Danforth.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 5, 1899.

Dear Classmate:—There is an Attorney in the southern part of the state who has a practice of about $1,500 a year, and who has formed a desirable business relation in another part of the country. He will turn his business over to some young attorney at $700 or $750 and maybe at less. I think terms could be made satisfactory. He will take a young man in as a partner for a few months and then retire, leaving the new man in control. In this way I think he could hold most of the trade. I was asked to refer the matter to some of the boys of '99 and thought possibly you might get this in time to put a mention of it in the class directory. Maybe there are some of the boys who would be glad to have such an opening. If so, I should be glad to put them into communication with the party. There is no commission in it for me. I am so situated that I don't think it wise to avail myself of the opportunity.

Yours,

F. M. Orem.

Indianapolis, Ind.

I am located in this city, No's 18 and 19 Fitzgerald Building.

Yours,

H. A. Fenton.

Detroit Mich., Dec. 22, 1899.

I am a member of the firm of Hill, Gage and Ranney, Whitney Opera House Building, this city. Hope I am not too late.

H. C. Hill.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 20, 1899.

Dear Sir:—Mr. S. N. Matthews, of our office, has shown me a circular which you have issued, relative to getting out a directory of the law class of 1899, U. of M. upon noting your effort in that direction my sympathy was immediately enlisted in behalf. I have been all along the line that you are now undertaking and I know what a job you have on your hands. I compiled a directory of the law class of '99 two years after our fellows had quit school and I sent out over 900 letters. I was quite successful in locating the different members of the class and believe that I missed only about eight. I know that you need all the help and advice one can give you in such an undertaking, and accordingly I contribute my mite by sending you a copy of the directory which I issued.

The question you ask your men about the number of cases they have won and lost is ill-timed, I believe, and if I were you I would let it alone.

It is only an incentive to prevarication, as you have no idea how many liars you had in your class until you get answers to that request. In the next place not ten per cent of the class which graduated in June will have tried a single case by the following January. This is so and I don't care what they say about it. No doubt you will succeed in your enterprise; at least I sincerely hope and trust you will.

Yours very truly,

W. C. Michaels.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 6, 1899.

My Dear Brown:—I have nothing of interest to furnish you for the Directory, except, perhaps to say that I opened an office by myself in Grand Rapids, the first of this month. Very truly yours,

C. E. Mapes.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 9, 1899.

Dear Brown:—I am located in this city. Have won six cases and lost two. The outlook here is favorable. Was married Nov. 8.

John A. Matthews.

Chicago, Oct. 12, 1899.

I am at present with the Maryland Casualty Co., in their law department, and am attending to their minor matters of a legal nature. My business address is 613 Tacoma Bldg., Chicago, (cor. LaSalle and Madison Sts.) I would like to have you, or any other of our classmates call and see me when in the city. There are about a dozen or so of our class-mates here in the city. I see some of them every few days.

F. B. Marshall, 679 W. Adams St.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 20, 1899.

I am located here at present, as is also M. J. McVean. No. 521-3, New York Life Bldg.

S. M. Matthews.

East St. Louis, Ills., Nov. 28, 1899.

Dear Friend:—I am practicing in this city. Have been here four months. Good business and fine outlook for the future.

Yours respectfully,

Charles F. McDaniel.

Chicago, Nov. 15, 1899.

Business location 1841-43 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

I am not practicing law. My first and only case was won! It was before Justice Duffy, at Ann Arbor, last year. I was for defendant in garnishee proceedings, and the case was withdrawn before a hearing without cost to us.

I am manager of the Public School Department of the H. Parmalee Library Co.

Mr. Parmalee is the originator of the "Circuit System" of traveling libraries. My sole business is to manage that department of the Company which places selected school libraries among the schools of the different states, and keeps them traveling from one school to another every three months. Leaving them at each school only long enough to be read.

Will be glad to see any of the class who chances to be in Chicago.

Sincerely yours,

F. R. Miller.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 29, 1899.

After a summer vacation, I am located and doing very well for a starter. During the summer I formed a partnership with Miss Orla Mays, of Dubuque, Iowa, formerly of Ann Arbor. So you see I am now prepared to handle a large law business. Yours,

F. M. Orem.

Brighan City, Oct. 13, 1899.

Won four cases, lost one and compromised. I have been through Yellowstone Park, Idaho, Wyoming and Montana since leaving school. Have not set up an office yet. Yours,

J. S. Perry.

Battle Creek, Mich., Nov. 28, 1899.

Dear Sir:—Your card addressed to E. F. Phelps came to my desk this morning. As an excuse for his failure to reply to your circular of October 7, I wish to say that Mr. Phelps has been confined to his bed by typhoid fever for the past eleven weeks. He is now convalescent, and I expect him back in the office in January. Our firm has been very successful thus far. Yours very truly, Burritt Hamilton, of Hamilton & Phelps.

Eaton Rapids, Mich., Oct. 11, 1899.

I am at present at Eaton Rapids, Mich., working on a salary—not very large—but still large enough to support myself and family. The man for whom I am working has been in practice thirty years; has become very wealthy, and holds out before me the hope of a partnership in the near future. Yours respectfully,

Elmer N. Peters.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 16, 1899.

Some six weeks ago I accepted a position with Hatch & Wilson, one of the leading firms of Grand Rapids attorneys. The association being a very agreeable one, I shall probably remain with them for some time. The opportunities for gaining a knowledge of the practical side of the law are very favorable. Before accepting this position, I had considerable practice in our local justice courts, being uniformly successful. Have a suit pending at the present time involving a defence to an action on promissory note. Enclosed find 25c. in stamps to pay for the first issue of the Directory. Yours, etc.,

Fred M. Raymond,
Widdicomb Bldg., Grand Rapids, Mich.

Salem, Ore., Oct. 17, 1899.

Dear Classmate:—I have been in my office here only a week, and have no cases ready for trial, so have nothing but my location to report. C. E. Roblin, who expected to locate in Portland, Oregon, is at Sumter, Oregon. Very truly yours,

John W. Reynolds.

Oklahoma City, O. T., Oct. 26, 1899.

As you remember, I got hurt in the "gym." before graduation and had to leave school, but, I am still at heart a '99. I had expected to return and finish this year, but my doctor advised me not to, as I have not recovered sufficiently to undertake the hard study of law.

During the past summer I have been engaged in the hardware business with my brother, at Geary, O. T. I recently suffered a relapse from over-exertion, and am at present here at home recuperating; expect to resume work in a short time, but my legal studies must necessarily be postponed indefinitely.

In regard to practice, will say that I prosecuted one case in the justice court and won; there was no appeal from the decision. I enclose 25c. with this letter, trusting to receive one of the Class Directories when issued. Yours truly,

Davenport Brown Richardson.

Expected location, Oklahoma City, O. T.

Lansing, Mich., Oct., 13, 1899.

Classmate:—Am at present located as office attorney in the attorney general's office. Expect to open office at Sault Ste Marie, Mich., in the spring of next year. Hoping that you are meeting with all success, I am your friend,

Herbert W. Runnels.

U. of M. DAILY, JUNE 22, 1919.

THE DAILY chronicles today in its special edition, one of the grandest and most successful events it has ever gloried to record. The matter is one which is being talked of, the world over, today, but we feel the deepest interest, inasmuch as it was an undertaking of former Michigan students, needless to say, of that illustrious Law class of '99. No class upon their leaving the University, ever gave such great promise of a remarkable future, and today we can say, no class has equalled it. The promising outlook in '99 has not failed of fulfillment, for the prominent names on the list of last night's occurrence were numerous.

But the novelty of the occasion is what greatly attracts our attention. For several years science and invention have been laboring to bring about the system of telephones without wires, at any distance. Hand in hand with this invention, has come the discovery of the color photograph, and the possibility of directing a ray of light around a corner, and with such facilities for discovering our neighbors, of course a reunion was a possibility; and last night it became a reality though the efforts of the energetic members of the '99 Law. Quick to see and grasp new opportunities, they decided to be the first to test the new inventions, so a banquet was arranged, and in the flow of conviviality, they renewed the old class bond, formed in the days when they were students together, and all hail with joy, the success of the evening's entertainment.

For hours, the men now active in the prime of life, sat in their homes in all parts of the world, and conversed with one another, and at the same time, by means of the color photograph, were enabled to view each other.

The reporter of the DAILY was one of the favored few who had access to one of the complimentary phones; ever loyal to their Alma Mater, they did not forget her, in this their greatest undertaking since the day the class resolved itself into a committee of the whole, to investigate Pat Egan's right to CREATE committees. Elaborate preparations were made, and a most successful program arranged, and it was provided that refreshments should be served by means of liquid air capsules, which made it possible to carry everything out as successfully, as though all were seated in one room.

Tales and jokes of college days were recalled, which evoked deafening shouts of laughter from over the telephone. It was indeed an event that will never be forgotten, and will go down in history, as famous as the Boston Tea Party, or the day when the report was circulated about college that Buck Sawyer had made a recitation.

It was first thought appropriate to have Pat Egan, their Honored President, Toast Master on this occasion, but the authorities found it difficult to locate him. They first telephoned to Washington where, they had been informed, that he was serving on the Supreme Bench; not finding him there they next telephoned to Columbus, and to the Ohio Legislature, but could obtain no information from him there. Finally he was found at the Klondike, where he was organizing a community after his own ideas, where he was to be "BOSS", and investigating committees were to be unheard of, and where any one who didn't belong to the "Gang" would subject himself to hanging. When Pat was at last found, he urged that his old friend Sanger be honored with this office of Toast Master, so his suggestion was followed; hence Sanger appeared in that capacity last night. It was then discovered that Sanger was at this time, a flourishing retail dealer, on the corner of Dearborn and Monroe Streets, Chicago. Strictly at nine o'clock, Sanger called up Central, and with a Hello! all connections on—ready then, and—Presto! Change!

With the turning on of the color photograph, the sight of one another after twenty years of separation, was evidently overwhelming, for a chorus of hellos and shouts came over the phone, only equalled by the yells of their barbarian days, when they were freshmen.

Mulholland seemed to cause the greatest stir, and the cry was: "Mulholland has regained his hair!" Mulholland's business enthusiasm got away with him at that, and he at once held their universal attention by telling them of his valuable hair restorer, which he now manufactures and sells. Emmons, seeing the effect the remedy had had upon Mulholland, signified his intention of getting in a supply.

There sat Andy Sawyer, with long—glowing yellow whiskers, and with the dignity of a supreme judge, and upon investigation it was found that he actually occupies that position. Immediately there began a buzz and hum, which finally resolved itself into a sound like the winter wind blowing through the trees. Finally, after much difficulty Toast Master Sanger succeeded in establishing order, and he then arose to the occasion, and spoke as follows. (Here followed a long address by Sanger which has been omitted for obvious reasons. F. W. B.)

This was followed by long applause, and at this point, R. N. Anderson (who, by the way, is running a country grocery and law office together), feeling the effects, he imagined himself back in his old college days again, and, assuming a pensive air, he said: "Yes, boys, I've been here seven years—I've seen 'em all come an' go, and I'll tell you boys, there's nothin' in it."

The Toast Master now called and prevailed upon our honored President "Pat" to make a little speech; and Pat spoke as follows: "I am glad to see all ye alumneses is here. I am glad to see that ye is not obleeged to go to the alumnesses of other colleges to find a toast master for your bloomin' dinner, beggorra." With the few closing candeces of this marvelous burst of Irish oratory, pronounced by that living prototype of Robert Emmet, Sanger, Fenton, R. N. Anderson and Bardin stood up and stretched out their arms toward him, and wept like willows beside a frog pond. This was one of the most impressive scenes of the evening.

The Toast Master then said: "Gentlemen, I feel sure that you all would be glad to hear about some of the other more retiring members of the class of '99, and as I notice that Mr. Canales seems eager to make himself heard, and I have been informed that he has been gathering statistic of the class, ever since we entered as freshmen, and has continued to gather statistics for the past twenty years we will have a word from him. Of course we might call upon Charles Beardsley, our class historian, but we might as well go to original sources, so we shall select Canales, whose statistics of '99 were copied verbatim by Beardsley, without even the trouble of using quotation marks.

Canales reports as follows: "Our Honorable E. C. Smith, over yonder, has done honor to his Alma Mater, and now sits as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan. He won his favor through his nominating speeches; his memorable speech nominating Eagab has been distributed among his constituents, and has influenced his career. Ellsworth has recently invented a machine for facilitating court work; he uses it in his practice, and finds it a great success. Instead of addressing the jury, he has an appliance which, when wound up grinds out all kinds of stock speeches. This, you see, saves breath and energy, and enables him to spare his strength, for facial expression. F. H. Bowers and Duback are now partners, out in Huntington, Ind. Duback makes the speeches, inasmuch as Bowers cannot make himself heard by the jury. Caley has kept up his reputation, and is traveling with the circus as strong man; his performance this evening, prevents his being with us.

Stanilous Dilonski has become an evangelist, and regularly presides at revival meetings amongst his countrymen. You may not recognize this name, but if I mention D. F. Dillon, a name which in his youthful days he found it necessary to assume, you will recognize the individual.

R. M. Dye "Might have been" quarter-back on the Varsity, had he been a little more fleet of foot; he "might have been" the champion hammer thrower, had his right arm been a little stranger; he "might have been" treasurer of the Oratorical Association, had he received enough votes, and if Henry Clark had not pulled him down by the coat tails at that class meeting, he would have made the speech of his life. With all his drawbacks, he is now a prosperous farmer in Nebraska—but think what he "might have been." O. K. Jones is now located in New York, where he carries on a flourishing business as a clairvoyant, and prophesies futures with the greatest of accuracy. Jimmy Bradin is now conducting a fashionable dressmaking establishment in Phillipines, where he is having the greatest success, designing artistic costumes for the Filipinos. Charlie Bush has at last secured an office; his wife has been elected Sheriff of Kosciusko County, Wyoming, and has named Charlie as her first deputy. Henry Clark has followed his early inclinations, and is following a life of diplomacy, and at present is Minister to China. Ganchow, true to his fostered tendencies, has announced himself as Captain of the Black Giants, of Coon Hollow, with one consecutive game to his credit. He is very profuse in his assurances that he was DULY ELECTED. Capt. Hogg started into the law practice in a small country town in Dakota, and is doing well. His friends are unable to understand why he always refuses party nominations. To a confidential friend, however, he discloses the secret: 'Do you remember when I was president of the Junior Law Class? Well, Nuf Sed.' The country has expanded, and we now have 59 states in the Union, but we still hear of the 45th state. Tanner has given up law, and gone back to preaching, and still inflicts his 45th state upon the public.

At the close of Mr. Canales' report, Mr. Wisner was next called upon for a speech, but he refused to MONOPLIZE any of the classes valuable time.

As it was now nearing the hour for the close of the feast, the master of ceremonies proposed a hearty toast to our Alma Mater, and as all stood up, and were about to drain their glasses, Drenning got connection, and made his first appearance. On seeing their old class mate, the class all cried as one man: "Who is always the last man? Drenning!"
